

Project Profile

American College of Emergency Physicians
Irving, TX

Scan QR code to view related video.

System Features

The American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP), dedicated to improving the quality of emergency care, expanded its network of AV solutions that connect their main offices to their membership and chapters throughout the nation.

- Dual 90" displays, 5,400 lumen projector, ceiling-mounted 58" displays, table microphones and in-ceiling speakers are featured in the main boardroom
- 70" displays, 4K scalars and in-ceiling speakers are included in large conference rooms
- 50" displays, teleconferencing capabilities and table-top touch screen controls enable group collaboration in huddle rooms
- Wall-mounted 60" display, media controller and Apple TV are utilized in huddle rooms
- 60" display and wireless presentation system are included in the Executive Director's office

Participants

Owner

American College of Emergency Physicians

Consultant

Gap Solutions Group

AV Contractor

Ford Audio-Video Systems

www.fordav.com
800-654-6744

ford  AV
Helping People Communicate!