

Project Profile

McCarthy
Houston, TX

When McCarthy Building Companies moved their Houston headquarters, Ford delivered a complete AV design-build solution across two floors, managing everything from initial engineering to field installation and commissioning.

- Multi-room Microsoft Teams ecosystem supporting executive offices, huddle rooms, conference rooms, training complex, and boardroom.
- Combinable training rooms with PTZ cameras, G9 codecs, and flexible control for seamless operation in multiple configurations.
- Boardroom optimized with table-top microphones for improved clarity and consistent hybrid communication.
- Reception area featuring a 110-inch display, downward-facing logo projector, and integrated streaming system for company events.
